

Bondages That May Be the Result of Demons

Appendix D

Some of these are normal human experiences and emotions in moderation. When they are excessive and you cannot change the behavior or feelings on your own, then you are in bondage to it and a demon may well be the driving force. Some of these are a sure sign of demonic activity to one degree or another. There are other bondages that not listed.

Sickness or Diseases	Daydreaming	Self Hatred or condemnation
Mental Illness	Fantasy	Boastfulness
Irritability	Pretension	Timidity
Moodiness	Addictions of all kinds	Low value of human life
Depression	Suicidal thoughts	Mockery
Confusion	Negativity, thoughts and speech	Feelings of Inadequacy
Inferiority	Insomnia	Jealousy, Envy
Loneliness	Worry	Cruelty
Paranoia	Anxiety	Insecurity
Pridefulness	Nervousness	Feelings of being unloved
Hatred	Restlessness	Feelings of being unlike
Bitterness	Self-awareness or embarrassment	Backbiting
Eating disorders	Fear of man or disapproval	Belittling others
Inability to concentrate or focus	Hallucinations	Nervous habits
Nightmares	Hearing voices	Morbidly, fascination with the dead
Fears of all sorts	Tormenting or harassing thoughts	Desire to drink blood
Stubbornness	Procrastination	Desire to inflict pain on self
Inability to give or receive love	Compromise	Desire to inflict physical pain on others
Excessive feelings or fear of rejection	Indecisiveness	Desire to inflict mental pain on others
Perfectionism	Indifference	Fascination with demonic
Obsessive behaviors	Self-delusion	Fascination with violence
Partiality, favoritism	Feelings of Superiority	Self-mutilation
Prejudice	Arrogance	Sexual confusion
Talkativeness, can't shut up	Material lust	Gender confusion
Self Importance	Greed	Hatred of God
Self-centeredness	Discontentment	Hatred of God's people
Gossip	Gluttony	Enjoyment of people's sufferings
Pretension	Obesity	Eating disorders
Murder	Overly competitive	Personality disorders
Anger/ rage	Impatience	Covetousness
Perversion	Sadness	Greed
Lust	Helplessness
Stealing, thievery	Hopelessness
Lying	Resentfulness
Desire to control others	Self-pity
Vengefulness	Rebellion
Argumentativeness	Shame
Easily offended/ sensitive	Guilt
Destructiveness	Unworthiness
Judgmental	Hyperactivity
Critical	Cursing
Desire for unnatural or perverted sex	Lewdness	