What We Believe

Kids in Ministry International, Inc. desires to bring awareness to children and adults of how God views boys and girls as partners in ministry and functioning members of the body of Christ.

Our intent is to teach, train, and equip children to do the works of Jesus and release them in their spiritual giftings and callings. Therefore we feel it is imperative for us to teach, train, and equip adults to minister to children, instructing them how to mentor and activate kids in the things of the Spirit. The goal is to help boys and girls find an active place in all areas of ministry and to inspire them to become functioning members of the body of Christ while they are still children. Those areas include evangelism, missions, the gifts of the Spirit, worship, prayer, healing the sick, and much more (Luke 4:18).

We are convinced that anything of and by the Spirit God has for adults is also available to children. It is our opinion according to the Scriptures children are fully capable of participating in the gospel. This includes salvation through the blood of Jesus, the baptism in the Holy Spirit, water baptism, communion, operating in the gifts of the Spirit, and any other scriptural doctrine or concept when these things are taught simply and on their level of understanding.

We believe childhood is the time God designed for people to accept the gospel, and we must all become as little children to receive the kingdom of heaven and that He places great value on the salvation of children (Matthew 18:1-14).

Kids in Ministry International, Inc. believes the body of Christ has a mandate from heaven to teach children the Word of God and to exhort them to become doers of the Word and not hearers only (John 21:15, Deuteronomy 6:1-9, 6:20-21).

We believe children are a part of God's end time army and the "great commission" of preaching the gospel to all nations, laying hands on the sick, raising the dead, speaking in tongues, and other areas of the believer's ministry fully applies to born again children as well as adults (Matthew 28:19-20, Mark 16:15-16, Acts 2:16-17).

We believe according to scriptural example (Judges 16:26, Matthew 2:2-7) children will play a major role in ushering in the last great revival

Day of Prayer for Israel

Leaders Overview

By Becky Fischer

We have two primary goals in this lesson. They are: 1) covering Israel in prayer, and 2) creating an awareness and love for Israel in the youth you minister to. We have approximately one service to accomplish this in, which is not nearly enough time to do everything that should be done.

In many ways this is a new generation of Christian teens and young adults who frequently have a negative viewpoint of who Israel is. They have not been taught what her significance is to the world and to us as Christian believers. They often have a very limited understanding of their Jewish roots in their faith in Jesus. After all Jesus was a Jew, which puts a whole new spin on the evening news.

Derek Prince was quoted as saying, “You cannot fully understand the Bible unless you know something about Israel. And if you are confused about Israel, you are confused about the Bible.” With no understanding or love for Israel, where will we be politically in just a few years when this generation is old enough to vote?

We have attempted to pack as much relevant present day information into this event as possible. We also want to leave a significant amount of time for your group to actually spend time praying for Israel. But this is intended to be a very interactive session as well. The teachings are short in order to leave room for group discussions. But in addition you are encouraged to tell your youth to bring their smart-phones, ipads, laptops, and notebooks to this event. Hopefully you have wireless internet in your youth building.

Each discussion will end with ideas of where your group can go on the internet (Facebook, Twitter, Google, or YouTube) in order to gather as much info as possible in a short period of time for their discussions. You will know what to have them look up by watching for the icons for the internet at the given sections.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

ROOM DECORATIONS & Ambience

In order to create a special atmosphere for this event, consider selecting a team of young people with the assignment of decorating your room or stage just for one day with imagery, icons visuals and photos that will remind them of both ancient biblical Israel and present day Israel.

We encourage you to gather shofars, prayer shawls, menorahs, Torahs, or pictures of any of these items for you teens to use or merely look at. It adds significantly to the interest for the subject matter and the ambience as they begin to gather into your room. You may even want to create one wall of your room to resemble the western wall in Israel where the Jewish people pray daily.

Make paper and pens available to take notes with as they gather information over the internet, as well as to journal their thoughts, prayers, and prophetic words they get during the event.

ADVANCE PREPARATION:
Make copies of the Scripture Handout on pages 18-19 for every person who attends your service.

MUSIC and dance

SEARCH FOR: "HORAH"

Before your service begins (or when it is over) you may want to have some fun with the whole group teaching them how to do some Jewish dances like the Horah. Ask some of your teen girls to learn how to do the steps prior to the meeting so they can lead the group. There are lots of videos on Youtube to show them the steps. However, if you are limited on time don't do this at the expense of valuable teaching and prayer time.

A Taste of Israel

Consider having a small table with some pieces of unleavened bread. Pita bread or Matzoh crackers can be found in a local grocery store. Or as an alternative, some bagels and cream cheese! Consider asking someone to roast a piece of lamb, then cut it up small pieces and allow the children to have a bite. Serve some grape juice with it all as the "fruit of the vine."

You may have other ideas of your own. But if you are interested in making this a complete cultural experience attempt to engage all five physical senses in your Jewish experience including taste. And of course, in addition to your Matzoh bread, remember pizza is made of unleavened bread too! But if you want it to be completely kosher do not mix cheese (dairy products) with your meats. It's cheese and veggies only!

ADVANCE PREP:

1. Bring as many current newspapers or magazines as possible with Israel as headline news, either positive or negative.
2. Have a large world map posted on your wall. Be sure to point out Israel's location and size at some point during your service.

Why IS Israel Important?

Today is our Day of Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem. The obvious question is why would we bother to pray for Israel? After all if you listen to the news, they seem to be in the center of conflict all the time. Depending on your viewpoint, they seem to be CAUSING the conflicts!

It's simply amazing that even though Israel and the Jewish people go back thousands of years they are still the focus on much of the news we see on TV and newspapers today. The whole world has its attention on Israel. Half the world hates Israel and the other half are friends of Israel. Most born again Christians love and support the Jews. It's important to know why because entire nations actually go to war over their love or hate of this tiny nation. Let's find out a few facts about them:

INTERNET SEARCH:

www.lookisrael.com / Click on "Just How Big is Israel?" Discuss facts on this page. Discussion: "What did you learn that you didn't know before?"

Israel is not big at all. It should make us wonder why such a tiny nation draws so much attention. So the next logical question is, "Who are the Jews anyway?" Where did they come from, and why are they so important in the world? As Christians we should be even more curious because the whole Bible, both Old and New Testaments, were written by Jews. Our spiritual history as Christians comes through the Jewish people. Everything God wanted to tell the world concerning His plan of salvation He told through the Jews. This is why the Bible says "salvation is of the Jews" (John 4:22).

Jesus was born of Jewish parents in the nation of Israel. Jesus was a Jew. Jesus was sent to tell the Jews about salvation. Every Bible hero we have ever had—David, Moses, Samson, Samuel, Gideon, Esther, Ruth, Daniel—were Jews. All of Jesus' disciples were Jews. God was the one who started the Jewish nation in the first place. He must have had a reason. Not only that, but our whole future as believers is tied to what happens to the Jews and Israel!

INTERNET SEARCH:

www.crosswalk.com / Search for Genesis 12:1-7 and Genesis 13:14-17. Discussion: "What does the Bible say about the land Israel is occupying?"

Israel is called the "Promised Land" because God promised He would give it to Abraham, the father of the Jewish nation. God told Israel, "You are my Chosen people" (Deuteronomy 14:2). He didn't choose them because they were big or even great, but because He loved them and wanted to keep His promises to their ancestors (Deuteronomy 7:7-8).

"I Am Israel - Documentary Film HD Version"

This is also provided as an MP4 free download in the same place you downloaded this free lesson. Show on your video projector.

Discussion:

Hand out paper and pencil to your teens and ask them to write down facts they learn from the film.

Though this video is from a secular perspective rather than biblical, what information in it shows that the hand and protection of God is on Israel?

HISTORY OF THE JEWS POWERPOINT

The Shema

Hear oh Israel, the Lord our God is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might.

Deuteronomy 6:4-5

A PowerPoint presentation has been provided for you as a free PDF download to go along with this event. You will find it in the same place you downloaded this free lesson. It is a brief history, but highlights some of the more significant events of Jewish persecution. We avoided the highly violent and graphic photos that could have been included so as not to be too offensive.

Comments are included each page to let you know what event you are looking at, but if you want more information of each historical crisis you can find them on pages 16-17 of this manual. Because we have provided so many other activities for you in this lesson, we chose to keep our comments brief.

You can easily open up a discussion with your group on the persecution of Jewish people and how it ties into biblical history.

GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE

A Biblical Perspective

There are at least five biblical reasons God has chosen the Jewish people as His special people. Let's see if we can learn why they are so important to God because if they are important to God then they need to be important to us!

#1. They are the historic chosen people of God starting with Abraham, the father of faith. "You only have I chosen among all the families of the earth," (Amos 3:2). He invested a lot of time and energy into finding people who would believe and trust in Him as their one and only true God. All the rest of humanity worshiped multiple gods continuously.

#2. They are guardians of God's special revelation, the Old Testament Law as well as the keepers of the Promises as given through Moses. The Jews were the only people in the world who had written down their religious beliefs in a book. In fact, they were known, and sometimes ridiculed by the Gentiles, as the "people of the Book." "[They] are Israelites to whom belong. . . the covenants and the giving of the Law. . . and the promises," (Romans 9:4).

#3. The Jews are special because the Messiah himself (Jesus) Who was a Jew came first to the Jews. "They are the descendants of our great ancestors, and they are the earthly family into which Christ was born, who is God over all (Romans 9:5)."

#4. The Bible compares the Jewish people to an olive tree, and tells us that everyone who comes into salvation are branches from other trees that are grafted in to the main root (Romans 11:17-24).

#5. Whenever the disciples and followers of Christ went into a new city or nation to tell others about Jesus, they were to preach salvation to the Jewish people first. Whenever the Apostle Paul went on a missionary journey he preached first to the Jews, then Gentiles. It was because the whole gospel message had come down through their own Jewish history and they were to have the first chance to receive the good news about Jesus. (Have a student read Romans 1:16.) "The gospel is the power of God unto salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek."

Video: "seven reasons to support Israel"

A Secular Perspective

Conservative radio show host Joyce Kaufman has served as chief of staff to West, a Tea Party-backed political insurgent from Florida's southern coast. Kaufman is a local staple on Sunshine State airwaves, talking politics from 12pm-3pm on WFTL as part of a lineup that includes heavyweights such as Lou Dobbs and Michael Savage.

Take 5 minutes to Tweet:

Allow your students 3 minutes to make posts on their Facebook and Twitter pages telling their friends about praying for Israel. Have them share one or two of the reasons for supporting Israel they have just discovered today. After the service have them check FB and Twitter again to see what kind of responses they got from their friends. Discuss both the positive and negative comments.

Search Youtube for

"I Am Israel - Documentary Film HD Version"

If you have access to the internet you can watch this online via your room's video projector. But it is also provided as a free MP4 download in the same place you downloaded this free lesson.

We have deliberately brought in a secular view-point because your teens will find themselves engaged in conversations with non-Christians who do not accept biblical arguments as particularly valid. So they should be armed with additional information for such encounters.

However although Kaufman makes valid points, exhort your teens that we do not want to adopt her confrontational, even angry, delivery. It is only her concepts that we want to pay attention to. We should always attempt to speak with confidence and authority but respect towards everyone, including those we disagree with.

Write it Down:

Hand out paper and pencils and encourage your youth to write down Kaufman's seven points and commit them to memory when they have time.

Discussion:

1. Although this video is from a secular perspective rather than biblical, what information in it confirms that the hand and protection of God is on Israel?
2. Which scriptures in our Scripture handout applies to even the secular points Kaufman makes?

Time to pray

This day, of course, has been set aside as a day of prayer. So no matter what else you do to educate your teens and create interest and discussion, you must deliberately plan your schedule so that there is plenty of time to actually pray. If you have only a one hour service, we suggest a minimum of 15-20 minutes out of that hour. If you have two hours, plan 30-45 minutes at least. You know your group and their level of spiritual interest in prayer, so plan accordingly.

If you have not done it already, hand out copies of the scriptures to each person. Depending on the teens, they may or may not be familiar with “praying the scriptures” over Israel. So prayer time could putter out fairly quickly when they run out of things to pray out of their natural minds. But more importantly we want them to know the promises God has made over Israel. So teaching them to pray the specific scriptures over Israel becomes not just more effective than praying out of our human intellect, but it is more powerful because we are coming into agreement with God over what He has already said about Israel.

With this in mind we have included a couple of pages (18-19) of scriptures about Israel. This is by no means an exhaustive list, and we encourage you to add any more that your church may be handing out or that you have available. The point is you want to arm your teens with concrete prophetic promises from God. Again depending on your group, you may have to actually show them how to take a scripture and convert it into a prayer. Feel free to “practice” with a couple of verses until they are comfortable with the idea.

Once they are ready, depending on the size of your group and the acoustics of your room, you may want to set up a couple of open mics allowing the teens to use them as they pray so they are clearly heard. It is difficult to join in group prayer when several have soft voices. If others want to shout their “Amen’s” and other words of agreement, they easily drown out the pray-er.

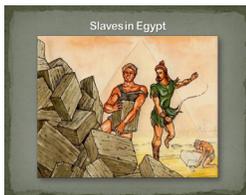

You can sit or stand, come to the front, or if you went to the effort of creating an imitation “wailing wall” you might even encourage your students to go to the wall in effigy and pray over Israel. To inspire your students we have provided a video included as an MP4 of one of our children’s and youth conferences where we did this very thing. It was one of the most powerful prayer times we’ve ever had. Showing this video in advance seeing their peers praying fervently over Israel may be the spark you need to pry them from shyness to boldness and into Spirit led prayer.

DRIVE THROUGH JEWISH HISTORY

Text for the PowerPoint "The History of the Jews"

PPT Slide 2: Slaves in Egypt. This is the first time we read that the whole nation of Israel was being treated cruelly. Remember they were slaves in Egypt. Joseph, a Jew, had great favor with the Pharaoh of Egypt and the Jews were protected and treated good because of him. But hundreds of years after Joseph died, and the Jews the slaves of the Pharaoh. He became afraid because there were so many Jews, so he made their work harder. That's persecution. Then there was the little issue of making bricks. The Pharaoh increased their quota of bricks and took away their supplies to make them with! He also decided to kill all the baby boys under the age of two to keep the population down. I'd say that's pretty ugly persecution! But there was one special baby boy whose mother hid him.

PPT Slide 3: It was Moses, and the Pharaoh's daughter found him in the River and rescued him. That's the good part of the story, but the bad part was thousands of little Jewish baby boys were killed for no good reason at all! Who remembers beautiful Queen Esther?

PPT Slide 4: Help me tell the story. Haman hated the Jews and Esther was a Jew. But nobody knew it. God had miraculously made Esther the Queen and she had great favor with the King. But Haman tricked the king into killing the Jews. Esther found out about it, and secretly called all the Jewish people to fast and pray for their deliverance. A miracle of God happened. Haman was killed instead of the Jews, and the law was overturned. It was a very close call. For once they escaped, but that was one of the few times it happened. Off and on throughout the Bible, the Jewish people were persecuted by various rulers, and even during the time when Jesus lived, the Jews had been conquered and were being ruled by Rome.

PPT Slide 5: Seventy years after Jesus had lived and died the Romans increased their persecution of the Jews. They conquered Jerusalem and completely destroyed their Temple.

PPT Slide 6: It was the same Temple where Jesus and the disciples had gone so often to preach and teach. It was the Temple where He healed the man with the crippled hand, where he overturned the table of the money changers, and argued with the Pharisees. And now it was gone because of an ongoing hatred of the Jewish people. Then comes a terrible time in history and a time we should be greatly ashamed of as Christians.

PPT Slide 7: During a time in world history called “The Middle Ages” Christians had grown greatly in numbers. There soon became thousands more Gentile Christians than Jewish believers. Nobody had Bibles in those days to study to Word of God for themselves for guidance in their lives. They were basically left on their own to figure out how to live as Christians. Unfortunately they didn’t know scriptures like what we learned today in Genesis 3:12, “I will bless those who bless you, and those who curse you I will curse.” They greivously persecuted the Jews and it became strong in other European nations and spilled over into Spain.

PPT Slide 8: In the exact same year of 1492 that Columbus was discovering America, Spain was persecuting the Jews in their country. They either had to leave Spain, convert to Christianity, or die. The truth is, for thousands of years in one place or another hatred of the Jews has always been alive and well somewhere on planet earth. There is no time to tell you about all of them. But we’ll cover one more in the early 1900s.

PPT Slide 9: It was in Russia. Thousands of Jews were killed, not just by the government, but by mobs of people in the streets who attacked and killed them with the blessing of the Russian government. These killings were called “Pogroms.”

PPT Slide 10: Then of course one of the greatest tragedies in modern history was the Holocaust in Germany under the maniacal Jew-hater Adolph Hitler, whom history now tells us had a little bit of Jewish blood in him through his father whom he never met. The tragic atrocities which ended in the deaths of six million Jews—men, women, and children—is well documented and was the cause of World War II.

PPT Slide 11: Adolf Hitler created the concentration camps where Jewish people were taken, treated very cruelly, and very few escaped alive.

PPT Slide 12: We wish we could say that the Holocaust was the last of the persecution of the Jews, but the truth is it is still going on today. It’s the basis of the war in the Middle East. Some of you may have had moms, dads, brothers, sisters, or uncles in the wars over there.

PPT Slide 13: They are very complicated wars but when you get to the bottom of the problem, this issue is still hatred for Israel and the Jews. Why is it this way? It’s because God has always had a plan for Jerusalem and His chosen people. The same Mount of Olives Jesus stood on with the disciples the day he left this earth and ascended into heaven is the exact same mountain his feet will touch when he comes back to earth again.

PPT Slide 14: God has used the Jewish people to bring His eternal plan to earth. The Devil knows this, and is doing everything he can to prevent it from coming to pass, but he is defeated! In the meantime, it’s extremely important that we as born again Christians remember our Jewish friends, pray for them, help them in every way we can, and even support them politically. God was very clear when he said, “I will bless those who bless you, and those who curse you I will curse!” We have to decide if we will bless Israel or curse them? Even right now today the Jews are fighting for their very lives right in their own home. But in countries all around the world, including ours, there is a new wave of people who hate Israel.

PPT Slide 15: (New Nazis.) We need to pray!

We hope to “connect the dots” between all the Old Testament stories and heroes and their significance to us today as born again believers.

It is a magnificent story that only God could weave and understanding it only enhances the truth and validity of God's Word. Understanding our roots to Israel and the Jewish people is a critical foundational teaching for our Christian children.
