

Witnessing to Muslims

Muslim witnessing. I stayed at a hotel recently for the night and I was hungry and went down to dinner. There was only one other person in the restaurant. I ordered my food from a polite man who looked like he was from India. The man who was sitting in the next table finished his food and left. I was now alone with my waiter and a young greeter who was out of ear shot.

I was wearing --- 3 ORANGE--- www.iamchanged.com bracelets.... The waiter kindly asked me what they were pertaining to.... I discretely shared, not knowing his “beliefs”...

I said... “I am so glad you asked ☺ here have one (which I know is a custom to give in some countries what is asked about)... Sir, these represent... what I am OVERCOMING and on this bracelet...there is a website of others who are doing the same. See, I was very sick and I heard about this place where I they teach spiritual reasons why people get sick..”

He said “really LIKE WHAT?” I answered “well, like holding onto anger or fear... see I had these issues especially surrounding the death of my brother.”

The waiter said “I see you are a spiritual woman and I too understand. I lost my brother who was a nuclear physicist and he was very smart but he was tormented and worked hard.. but the world lost a great man. And the Earth took back a great man”.

At this point I thought this man must be Hindu.

Then he began to speak to me about the end times.... I was listening to discern what belief he was coming from... he pointed out 5 main things

- 1) The world is becoming like Sodom and Gomorrah
- 2) Gender confusion and the wearing of opposite clothing
- 3) Baby’s being sold or seed of the woman sold for money
- 4) Weather changes
- 5) Greed

To these comment I said... “I agree these things are happening in the world..” And I was still wondering where he was coming from... he continued to speak saying... how he has spoken these things to Christian, Muslims and Jewish friends and how he felt I displayed “peace, morals and integrity as a woman”...

Then He began to say he believed in darkness and light. And I agreed. He said there is only one GOD. I said "YES!" ..... then he said "Jesus, was a man... who used the bathroom and prayed to GOD and told the people OUR FATHER WHO ART IN HEAVEN.... How could GOD be a man and use the bathroom?????"

At this point I knew he was a practicing Muslim and I was being proselytized... I had learned this very statement in class at RZIM, used by Islam. They believe Christians are polytheists due to the Trinity. They deny any belief that a man could be GOD PERIOD.... He went on to say he prayed 5 times a day and fasts and leads a moral life in a world with little morals. And that he felt...that I was a humble, kind, moral woman even in the short time we had met.

I asked him a few questions, which he was glad to answer graciously.

I did not debate. I did not tell him what I knew about Christianity vs. Islam. I paid my meal and gave him a good tip and said thank you for sharing with me your life. He even wrote his email down for me. And he said as I left "I look forward to looking up this site truly if you were healed of all of those many diseases and now have peace and love for others THIS IS A PLACE I WILL LIKE TO GO!!!!!!!!!"..

I hugged him and said thank you Ali. I will also keep you in my prayers.

I thought as I walked away how GOD sent me to RZIM about this very subject and I was able to discern. BUT HOW MANY sit there night after night NOT KNOWING where he was coming from or of the agenda. So many folks may not even understand that this religion is gaining souls at an alarming rate and bewitching a planet in the first stage.

I am asking for your prayers for Ali. He was a nice man who needs to know Jesus is YHWH the I am and that we serve one GODHEAD.

I have such a heart for all people I want to see them in the Celestial City; despite religion, culture, creed, race, or lack thereof. And OUR GOD loves them all and wants us all at the Marriage Supper of the LAMB.

Abba, and my LORD please uses those bracelets to produce MIGHTY fruit and even bring Ali to know YOU and if at all possible go to BIH. In Jesus Christ of Naz name amen!
