

Hello:

In the spirit of creating some Masonic discussion, I am putting forward these Trivia Questions.

Some of the answers to these questions will vary according to your jurisdiction as that is to be expected and hopefully will also generate some Masonic discussion over the differences.

However, as answers will have to be provided, I, as submitter of these questions, and by approval of the listserv administer, I, will also have final say. This sounds draconian, but it is necessary for someone to have control of the gavel.

By participating in this Trivia you agree as a Mason to abide by the terms above.
